

WHERE THE GUARANTEED RIGHT OF A RACE IS DENIED

The New Jersey State Temporary Commission on the Condition of the Urban Colored Population of the state of New Jersey has made the report on its findings, with certain specific recommendations which are calculated to improve materially the status of the colored population within the state.

With the most painstaking care and with the accuracy of a time-table, the commission finds that the State of New Jersey, through its legislative, administrative and judicial departments, has not fulfilled its obligation to insure equal opportunity to all citizens for security, happiness and advancement. The responsibility rests entirely upon the state for taking the leadership in the fight to protection its colored citizens against the results of racial prejudices.

It is indeed a shocking reflection on the standards of New Jersey justice to find a minority group of over 200,000 human beings who are now denied the rights of full citizenship. A real Democracy tolerates no oppression. The problems of segregation and oppression in the State of New Jersey, as reported by the Commission, deny the entire colored population the simple rights of human justice and constitute a complete failure of Democracy within the state.

The Commission then comes to the cruel pricking of the bubble by giving factual data to prove conclusively that the state denied the colored population full rights of citizenship and now not only the security of the colored population is threatened but the security, welfare and stability of the state as a whole. The Commission concludes that some of these conditions are of long standing and must be corrected gradually while others are open to immediate attack by legislative action and ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES.

To this end the Commission drafted certain recommendations designed to end widespread discrimination, to seek improvements in the basic fields of employment, housing, health, education and insurance. With such an ideal established in the law of the state and exemplified daily in Governmental action, private citizens will soon be influenced and adjust their relationships accordingly.

We as a group should make a bitter protest and demand that the Law Makers in Trenton, smothered under the wet blanket of deception, chicanery and racial hypocrisy, make an about face and grant to us one and all a Democracy within the state of New Jersey.

As citizens we ask only for equal opportunities. We do not want and do NOT ask for any special grants or special privileges... We do not want special seats, special rooms, special wards, special hospitals, special buildings, special schools, or parts of any special City, County or State owned institution of any description or kind. We want and demand that which every other free born, liberty loving American citizen should have.. FAIR PLAY.. EQUALITY.. and JUSTICE.

Rev. Riley Wins
Fight Over Funds

The threatened split in the Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Nutley, of which Rev. George Bert Riley is pastor, over the handling of the church's building funds appeared to have subsided here Tuesday when Vice-Chancellor Alfred A. Stein, ruled that the Building Fund Society should turn over the $34,072 it collected to the pastor and Trustees.

Nearly 200 members of the church crowded into the hearing room to counsel for both sides battle headed for custody of the funds. Mrs. Sarah Warren, Mrs. Martha Harper and Mrs. Nancy Harris, representing the Building Fund Society revealed the body had deposited the sum in the Bank of Nutley.

It was the contention of the church that by a resolution passed by the church the money should be held by the bank subject to withdrawal only upon checks signed by Grant Bragg, the chairman of the Board of Trustees and Elijah Green treasurer.

Attorneys for the Society argued that the money was held in trust for a building fund and that members of the Society feared that, if released to the church, the money would be used for other purposes.

In decreasing that the money be turned over to the church, Vice Chancellor stipulated that the money be used "for other purpose than a building fund."

In the face of this charge the committee is mysteriously silent.

It is reported that a committee of colored citizens, representing several prominent organizations, will appear before the appropriations committee of the Legislature and register their protest against a college receiving State aid submitting to Southern race prejudice.

Obstacles Faced By The Race In NEWARK

(This is the first of a series of facts to be published about the conditions affecting Negroes in various municipalities of New Jersey.)

In Newark, as in the several towns and cities of New Jersey, the main drawback found in recent studies has been that JOBS—the right to earn a livelihood—have been systematically denied the Negro.

This condition exists from the governmental opportunities down through private industries and the various relief opportunities. The recent survey showed that Negroes were denied equal opportunity in Civil Service employment, in WPA work and in non-competitive State, county and local employment.

The denial of this opportunity to earn a livelihood has resulted in poor housing conditions because of low incomes and the three social plagues of ill health, youthful delinquency and crime.

Newark had a listed population of 38,880 out of a total population of 442,337 in 1930. The total number of unemployed Negroes in 1937 (and this number has increased) was 5,059 males and 2,056 females.

LIVING CONDITIONS IN NEWARK

Of those Negroes employed, the average income for the State was only $380 a year. The minimum income established on which a family of five could live is $2,400 a year. It can be seen the Negro here earns one-third of a living wage. The great mass of Negroes earn even less than the $880 a year. Newark has the lowest average weekly income of $125.11!

In Newark 93 per cent of the Negroes live in rented dwellings. Here the race suffers by living in unwholesome dwellings and paying high rents, in excess of proportion of their ability to pay. These dilapidated dwellings have resulted in a high infant death rate of 36.6 per cent. Of 1,797 houses in Newark investigated by the survey, 82.7 need repairs or were unfit to live in. Newark experienced an example of the results of such a condition last Christmas when four burned to death in a similar deathtrap! One-half of the dwellings do not have hot or cold running water!

Miss Anderson May Snub School Offer

WASHINGTON—Although the Board of Education withdrew its objection to Marian Anderson appearing in Central High School, White, with understanding that no other application of Negroes would be considered in the future, friends of the singer here Tuesday expressed doubt that the board's "retreat" would be accepted.

The board met its action in rescinding its ban of February 15 as an "emergency." It stated that the new agreement and concession "will not be taken as a precedent."

The action followed the nationwide protest in which Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt resigned from the D. A. R. when it refused to open its Congressional Hall to Miss Anderson.

Arrived in New York, Sol Horak, agent for Mrs. Anderson, stated he was going ahead with arrangement for a free open concert in a Washington park on Easter Sunday. This was taken to mean Miss Anderson would not be to the action of the Board of Education this week.

Approval of Mr. Yancey's formal application for membership was granted by the Association's sub-committee on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Yancey, who has attracted considerable attention through his consistent fights for Civil Rights, in cooperation with the Negro Congress and the N.A.C.P., is a member of the Survey Commission and gained nationwide publicity in his candidacy for a city commission post.

He was recently appointed to the legal staff of the Newark Housing Authority as a title searcher by Harold A. Lett, only Negro member of that authority, and secretary of the N.J.U.R. League.

South Is Now "Militant"

"The Southern Negro is no longer passive. He is taking militant stands for his guaranteed rights under law," said Alexander Wright, district executive for Virginia of the International Workers' Order, upon his arrival here to speak at the Order meeting Friday night at 5 Broome street.

He cited the recent strike of Negro workers at the Lomax plant in Norfolk for living wages. Negroes there were fighting a 16-cents-an-hour wage. Following a successful picket the plant was made a union shop with a minimum wage of 25 cents per hour.

Lively Debate On Survey at Elizabeth Tea

ELIZABETH—Leslie B. Graner, director of the Negro Welfare Commission, ran into an unexpected barrage of criticism here Sunday at the benefit tea given by the North End Tennis Club.

Following the main address by President David Bucarey of Newark Junior College, 121-123 Clinton avenue, announced three appointments to the college staff.

Mr. Julius Barr of Newark was appointed instructor in Business Law. He received his LL.B. degree from the New Jersey Law School and is an attorney-at-law and counselor-at-law in the New Jersey Bar. Mr. M. F. Smith of Newark was appointed as instructor in business subjects. He received a B.C.S. from New York University and an M.A. from Montclair State Teachers' College.

Furthermore, cited the counselor, "we should encourage any member of the white group who ventures forth to anything for our group." He reprimanded the colored folks for lack of race confidence, in that our white neighbors discover our talents long before we become aware of them.

"It has been the tendency of the Negro to recognize the statement of a white person long before a colored person. In other words, we really believe something if a white person says it. Such being the case, we should rally behind these folks, when they say good things about us."

PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN NEWARK

Unlike several other municipalities throughout the State, Newark has not bowed to separate schools for children. There are eight Negro teachers in Newark's public schools. It has no Negro member of the Board of Education. Although Negro pupils are encouraged to attend the four vocational schools in Essex County, there is only one Negro teacher out of a total of 2,500 vocational students.

CITY HOSPITAL STAFF

Despite the fact that the City Hospital is supported by public funds, and because of unhealthy living and working conditions, Negroes are forced into ill health, the survey revealed. "School of nursing has no Negroes among the 90 students, nor has it ever had one." Neither has it a Negro physician on the staff or does it provide facilities for Negro interns.

SUMMARY

Newark, with the largest colored population in the State, has the lowest average income, the less percentage employed in governmental work, and no physicians are nursing students in its publicly-supported hospital, the largest percentage of houses unfit for habitation and is shockingly deprived of representation on policy-fixing boards.

Plainfield Benefactor Refuses Bid

PLAINFIELD—In less than 10 hours after Negro citizens basked in the expected glory of a maternity hospital, the proposed gift of Samuel W. Rushmore, millionaire inventor and newspaper story philanthropist, the dream gift evaporated into thin air.

Rushmore gained considerable publicity in announcing Sunday that he would convert his $220,000 estate into a maternity hospital for Negroes "because he didn't like Mayor Frank Hague and Senator E. Loizeaux."

He was fighting these two to "stop the appointment" of Frank Hague, Jr. to the Court of Appeals. Hague's appointment was announced simultaneously with the announcement Tuesday that Rushmore had changed his mind about giving the hospital to Negroes.

Leading Negroes in Plainfield, reached by Herald-News reporter, registered surprise that Rushmore had suddenly "decided to help the race." So the hospital which suddenly was thrown open to them disappeared as suddenly.

Rushmore announced Tuesday afternoon that he had resigned the gift because interested buyers had refused to give him the price asked.

Urge Flood Of Telegrams To Mrs. Roosevelt for Stand

An appeal is being made by the James Weldon Johnson Literary Guild to all women's organizations and individuals to send telegrams to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, commanding her on the splendid stand she took against the Daughters of the American Revolution and their refusal to accommodate Marian Anderson, internationally known contralto singer.

The Literary Guild, as well as many other race citizens of the country, feel the move made by Mrs. Roosevelt was one of the most outstanding events of the year, and this move of sending a telegram would be a gesture of the appreciation as shown by the r.c.t.

The Jersey members of the James Weldon Johnson Literary Guild are: Beatrice Abrams, Ruth Brown, Ernestine Worthy and Vera B. Mitchell.

Miss Anne Wiggins Brown Heads Three-Point Program of Music Appreciation Guild

MONTCLAIR: — One of the most revered of stage stars, Miss Anne Wiggins Brown, star of the recent "Porgy and Bess," will appear in the George Inness Junior High School here Sunday afternoon, March 19, heading a three-point program of the Music Appreciation Guild, a group of young women organized for the purpose of assisting and developing talented race artists.

Mrs. Ernestine is at present co-starring with Ethel Waters in the latest Broadway success, "Man-Bat-Daughters." Among the other stars, Miss Flora Thomas, internationally famous pianist, and Miss Ruth Ellis, well-known dramatic reader of personality and force, are presented on this program.

The Music Appreciation Guild, of which Mrs. Vestilla Lassister-Lester is advisor, has made considerable progress during the past year in popularizing appreciation of the cultural arts. Mrs. Lassister Lester is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music of New York City. Both she and Miss Brown were students at this same school at the same time.

Officers of the Guild are: Miss Laurette Hammond, Vice-chairman; Miss Thomasine Bell, co-chairman; Miss Elizabeth Maddox; secretary, and Miss Lois Lynn, treasurer.

PATERSON: — Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Betsy Lane Jordan, who passed away on Wednesday at the age of seventy-eight. The deceased was one of our most colorful personalities. A native of Raleigh, N. C., she was the daughter of the late David and Bobbie Lane, and enjoyed the distinction of having been one of the very first graduates of Shaw University.

For the past seventeen years, she lived happily with her only daughter, Martha, wife of Mr. Gaston Hinton, 315 Hamilton avenue.

Always a faithful church-woman, the deceased was a member of the First Cavalry Baptist Church, a faithful political worker, and a member of the Ladies Fortnightly Club.

The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. Dr. Jones, who was assisted by the Rev. J. Goodsir and the Rev. Charles L. Tarter of the St. Augustine Presbyterian Church, who offered prayer at the service and pronounced the benediction at the Cedar Lawn Cemetery where interment was made.

He succeeds Rev. August E. Jensen, who has been rector of the church for eighteen years and who is retiring because of impaired health. Many Negro families of the capital city are communicants of St. Monica's.

Father Nelson's appointment to the Trenton church was made by Rt. Rev. Wallace John Gardner, D.D., bishop of the diocese. Rev. Nelson is married to the former Mrs. Ethel Van Devere of Elizabeth. They have six children.

He received his Master of Arts Degree from Boston University in the field of Social Ethics, and the Bachelor of Sacred Theology Degree from Boston University School of Theology.

The committee in charge of the services are Dr. James C. Hill, chairman, Mr. William Travis, Dr. L. M. Graddick, and Dr. Hutchins Ing.

PROSPECTUS

Progressive action is both the motive and objective of democracy. If not "Truth," then the SPIRIT OF TRUTH will make men free and creative. They serve RACE or GROUP or SELF best who like Roger Williams, would claim for themselves no right or privilege which is not granted to all men equally.

Bilbo, From Mississippi,
"Tops For Crackpot" Ideas

Senator Bilbo of the United States Senate, the Psychopathic gentleman from Mississippi, has introduced a bill in the Senate purporting to outlaw marriages between white and colored persons...making it unlawful for any person knowingly to attempt to marry a colored or white person or to conduct the ceremony. Violation would make imprisonment mandatory.

As to inter-marriage...the bogey that frightens Senator Bilbo...it's neither his business nor ours, but plainly that of the contracting parties for every free born American citizen.

During the last session of the Congress the race-baiting Bilbo poured out a lot of Mississippi slush about shipping Negroes back to Africa or some other far-off place. This man seems capable of no end of crackpot ideas.

Of course, it must be apparent to sensible persons that Bilbo is a stupid, ill-bred exhibitionist intent on raising false issues, scaring up silly war-hoops over absurd battles to be fought...while the major and pressing problems of our national life begs for solution.

Let it be said here and now...that we never accused Senator Bilbo of being capable of any other performance. For, like Dr. Johnson, we know that neither wealth nor education can endow to be little; and that never yet has the seed of the bramble-bush been known to grow into a giant oak. The petty, fetish-bound mind of Bilbo, we submit, is incapable of any concern other than the moth-eaten one of white supremacy and race purity. The Bilbos, the Cole Bleases, the Tom Helflins have no other major concern, precisely because their minds will embrace none other. What a pathetic reflection on the aspirations of the South are the performances of these men! The South...the nation's chief economic problem; the land of the share-croppers and tenant-farmers; the wage differential; of race bigotry; of poor housing...can this South send up better type of man to Washington than Bilbo?

Have we not had enough of the race-hated and bigoted? That Senator Bilbo's bill designed to create even more of?

The United States has far more important matters to consider than the silly ideas of crackpot Southerners who are determined to fight the Civil War all over again while they draw their pay from the Union. The urgent business of the Congress does not allow a dress-parade of THE GRAY GHOSTS OF A LOST CAUSE. Now as never before there are too many of the nation's wounds that need binding up to tolerate the madness of Bilbo's schemes.

The Negro Press
In New Jersey

Today, as never before, the Negro Press is capable of rendering a distinct service to the Negro People in the state of New Jersey.

It is our opinion, however, that the Negro press of today has opportunities for service such as it never had before. THE NATURE OF THIS SERVICE WILL DEPEND, OF COURSE, UPON THE PRESS' QUALITIES OF IMAGINATION, THE NATURE OF ITS SOCIAL REFLECTION, AND ITS CAPACITY FOR DEEP, PRESERVING DEVOTION TO A CAUSE BROAD AS ALL MANKIND AND SPECIFIC AS A CONCERN FOR THE LIFE, LIBERTY, AND HAPPINESS OF THE LOWLIEST AMONG US.

It is unfortunate that the Negro Press must...at this late period in our history...still battle for the simple, elementary rights of citizenship; for equal opportunity and for respectable treatment to earn a living.

It is our considered opinion that the Negro newspaper deserves public approval and support in the measure of its participation in this great struggle.

How does the Negro newspaper participate in this struggle? What is its part in the bid for real economic and social equality?

Its part is to present the news of Negro life; to bring under public scrutiny every fiber of the body politic; to familiarize the public with the economic, political and social activities of the Negro people; to criticize, to suggest, to offer solutions, whenever possible, to the day to day pro-

The Reader Speaks

LIKES PAPER

Since your newspaper has entered the local field there has been a noticeable change for the better in our Negro Journalism in the State. I must congratulate you on your excellent reporting, editing and photography. I might say that there is room for improvement in the content and treatment of your broad purposes.

Many Negroes are now looking forward to reading the various advertisements in leading businesses that your paper has carried in the past few weeks. The future looks bright for you gentlemen.

MILTON H. TAYLOR,
107 Orator street;

LIKES OUR STYLE

My compliments to the "New Jersey Herald News." It is one of the few colored papers that does not always have it's headlines and front pages full of blemishes of the Negro people. In a word...to serve...by bringing the weight of facts and critical opinion to bear on the minds and hearts of a FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLE.

The HERALD-NEWS will continue to do its part in the rights of man, human dignity, and for fulfillment of the original promise of American life.

Progressive leaders in the state of New Jersey MUST have the support of a Progressive Negro Press.

The Round Table

The Marian Anderson incident is now world-wide knowledge. In street parlance, "they done her wrong" To this most everyone who is anyone agrees.

On Wednesday, February 22, 1939, Sylvia Smith, writer of the "Much Ado" column in the Newark Ledger, devoted her entire column of almost a thousand words to the downright injustice and dastardly wrong of the master. Columns, editors, commentaries and writers the world over did identically.

The writer of the "Much Ado" column handled the master in hammer and tongs fashion. She made no words...she hit not her tongue. She called a spade a spade. It was undeniably a sharp product. A masterpiece.

Now here's the hurt. The unskirt cut. Notwithstanding the alert brilliancy, the unquenchable sagaciousness and truth of the product. Monday morning the writer of the column received from a colored woman an out-and-out, insulting, vituperative, slanderous and dastardly threatening letter, solely because the writer of the column used the designation "black" in her array of facts. It is inconceivable how anyone who read the column intelligently could interpret the word "black" as used, to convey any insult whatever. As a matter of fact, the designation as used gave strength and precision to the piece and to the writer of the column.

But be all this as it may, it behoves any Colored American in particular or any American in general to call nasty names or threaten to annihilate because of disagreement in thought or division in opinion. It also becomes one to cast aside the garments of refinement and decency and retire to the cess pool for language with which to vaguely express disapproval.

Other incidents of recent days coupled with the Marian Anderson incident have brought many new friends to America's colored folk. Much good is being wrought through unheralded channels and avenues of quiet and conscientious work. The bit of progress along the road of social betterment is altogether too important to have it stopped or choked by scatterbrain or significantly dump tactics on the part of any Colored American or whatever ilk.

Building up of the body-social is surely tough aplenty. Battling down is no trouble at all. Years and years of work by effective and effective work.

All - Around

By LILLIAN B. HUFF

To Bed By Twilight

So near twilight does Dr. Brock (Westfield) order me between the covers that I am beginning to remember my nursery rhymes... Don't know much else... With Lent or the "Depression" making a very definite mark on the Society steppers... everything has come to a halt... sort of nice for me because I can't go for a spell... but oh, boy! when the society jitterbugs start swinging... I'll be there! (I hope, I hope.)

Moving "Pop" Afternoon Calls

Lots of fun the other afternoon listening to one of my favorite social workers, Garnett V. Henderson, tell me of her week-end spent with Alice B. Arrington (Baltimore). "Lil" it was swell, all many interesting things to do... Friday night the Morgan and Shaw basketball game brought me chance to renew acquaintances with many old friends... Saturday afternoon found us eating lunch with Cooperative Women's Civic League at their annual luncheon and conference... Saturday we visited the Negro exhibit at Baltimore Museum where the AKA were holding forth in honor of Founders' Day... When I arrived back on the job Monday morning felt ever so well and happy...

Summer's Gift to Social Work

Catching up with my visits brought me before the gate of "The Home Away from Home," where Miss Violet Johnson holds sway. And did we have fun, just we two sitting there chatting... Miss Vi told me all about the swell Washington Birthday party the club had... Mrs. L. Hawthorne Ader was wearing a gown over one hundred years old... Fred Johnon, the "Y" secretary, was dressed as a messenger from the King... Other folks on hand were Dr. E. H. Allen, Basile Hill, who is president of the club... Eddie Davis... Grace Harris... Cynthia Smith... Ruby Bassett... Capitol Dickinson... Marion Mann... Gladys Leek... L. Ferris... Allen Joynes... Albert Smith... Mr. and Mrs. Collins... Mrs. Cummings... Mrs. Otha Thomas... Mrs. Mabel Jones and others...

Profusion of Gladiolas Added

Much to the lovely life given by the North End Tennis Club Sunday afternoon... And so did the ladies chapeau... exquisite fragrance of straws with flowers and velvety aplenty... making charming feminine woman... maybe the men will go back to the old days when "Knightbridge Was in Flower"... Amelia B. Bryant, the bride, was charming in her two-toned dress of grey... Daisy Mulford's hat of black, which always kept drawing my eye... Lettice Browns hat of black, which always kept drawing my eye... Lettice Browns hat of black was one of the most becoming I have seen her wear... Smiling Lottie Evans on hand, a brief respite from her duties at the Vaux Hall Community Center... Constance J. Leroy Jordan rushing home to get her home to the station... Sarah Williams, formerly of Elizabeth, now living in the apartments, has grown more attractively in the past year... Mrs. Adele Brown of Plainfield with daughter, who is not about the same height of mother... Mrs. Helen Pollard of Plainfield was along with them... Mrs. L. Haworthine Ader in a plump creation... Edna Jones of Chatham... Rosalie Marrow of Summit... Matty Synder, for "crisis" make you look the second time... Edith Tate with daughter, Marion, who has now reached fifteen and is "pretty pretty"... Mrs. Grosses was accompanied by daughter, Betty... The Marrow family of Elizabeth was well represented with Mrs. Anna Marrow, Ned Vandevere, Mildred Rowe, Anna Mae Davis and Kirk Marrow... Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hairston of Rutherford... Helen Carson, Carolyn Robinson and Elyse May representing the Black Monks... Marjorie Mosley walking around smiling sweetly... Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Davis... Jo and Fauna Hawks... Ada Polk of Chatham... Mrs. Hugo Wahlstrom... Mrs. Wanda of Summit... Blanche Morse of Elizabeth... Mabel Faison Page... and plenty others...

"The Women" Have Ideas

Last Friday evening this popular group of femininity met at the home of Evelyn Timmons, Haledon street, East Orange, and discussed all kinds of pleasant things to do... finally settling on a jaunt to New York on March 25 to see "Mambo's Daughter" and aates on April 16th... Frances Young was there in a black jacket over a black and white check skirt... Alidente Carter in a rose knit suit of her own making... Ruby Rodgers' black wool dress was accented with a bronze figure head pin... Juanita Mulford in a black crepe dress with a white vest... Jo-Ann Buckson's green tweed sport dress fitting to a "T"... Agnes Copeland very stylish in a plaid jacket with beige skirt... Nellie Wahlstrom in a very new green print... They say that the collation was just right...

Shelton Brooks, Hit Composer, Keeps His Vigor

Your reporter encountered Shelton Brooks, famous composer and comedian, at the Grand Hotel Monday night. Brooks was filling an engagement at the Shubert Theatre and was being enthusiastically received by the patrons of that house.

"Though we'll along in years and slight bald, he still retains all of the vigor and vitality of a person much his junior. When asked about his two famous compositions, "Song of These Days" and "Darktown Strutters' Ball," Brooks said: "Those songs seem to be just as popular with the big bands as they were when I first wrote them. Of course, they may sound a little different with the new swing arrangements, but one doesn't have to be a musical detective to recognize them."

Shelton kept a crowd of people in the dining room laughing with his humorous sayings and stories. As we took our leave after a pleasant chat we could not help but think that here is a man who is destined to take his place along with George Cohen and other great composers and performers in musical comedy. A performer whom we will always enjoy see pulling that famous little piano out on the stage and singing "The Hole in the Wall."

Well-Rounded Show at Dodgers

The Dodgers' Grill is again the mecca of entertainment with a splendid floor show and Larry Ringold's band to furnish a classy bit of entertainment and music. Featured at the Grill are such favorites as Emma Hawking, who scored another triumph with her rendition of "Blame It on My Last Affair."

Celeste Jones is great, singing "It's Never Too Late," and Belle Williams offers a distinctly novelty shake number that for grace and artistry is rare.

The comedy is well handled, by Herbert Pugnay, one of the best in the State, and "Smiling" Sammy Jones, who also serves as Emcee. Larry Ringold's unique dance arrangements should him as "tops" among the musicians of this section.

HARDY LOSES

Buster Hardy showed the handicaps of long intervals between bouts in losing his fight with Harvey Massey at Laurel Garden, Monday night.

Billy White, sensational bather of Baltimore, continued his winning streak by handing an artistic facie to Julio Gonzales in another bout on the card. White is popular with fans and should soon be getting a shot at Larkin, Cochrane or Fisher.

"Gang Smashers" Is Up To Minute Screen Drama

Doubly more than that same studio's "Bargain With Bullets" and "Life Goes On," Million Dollar Productions' "Gang Smashers," which opens at the National for its first run in Newark on Sunday, March 12, is an absorbing, gripping, blood-curdling tale muddled around a topic torn from the front page headlines of today's newspapers.

Clippings from The Clubs

Club El Dorado of Paterson gave a dance at Harlem-on-the-Hudson last Thursday evening. Club from the city and all parts of Jersey were in attendance. John Horse, president, wishes to use the medium of the Herald News to thank their many patrons.

The newly organized North Jersey Chapter of the Virginia State College Alumni will hold a meeting at the home of Miss Elsa Brown, 72 Third street, South Orange, on March 2.

The Silver Circle Club, composed of a group of Newark patrons, gave a very successful tea last Sunday afternoon at the Club room of the City Association, 165 South Orange avenue. The roster of the club includes Alice Hutton, Delta Dumas, Carrie Scott, Edith Ashby, Alice King, Ethel Couch, Agnes Turpin, Mary Lockett, Dora Weaver and Cora Williams.

Romance, love and rollicking comedy are blended into the fabric of "Gang Smashers" as well as its tragic episodes, and all is depicted by a notable cast headed by Nina Mae McKinney, internationally famous screen star who was hurried to Hollywood from Australia for her first all-colored cast, modern, class-A picture.

They were directed by Leo C. Popkin, one of the most progressive young megaphonists in Hollywood. Her supporting cast includes Lawrence Criner, Monte Hawley, Mantan Moreland, Edward Thompson, Reginald Fender, Arthur Ray, John Criner and others.

SPORTS

LINCOLN, MORGAN TO MEET IN ORANGE

IN THE GROOVE

By OLIVER "BUTTS" BROWN

Mrs. Louis, wife of the champion, has taken a page from the book of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the President, and has become an Ambassador of Good-Will for hobby. Last week she was swamped by admirers of the Bomber when she attended the Mardi Gras festivities at New Orleans. She presented the key to the city to the Queen.

That Man's Here Again - Tony

The eyes of the boxing world turn to the coming bout for the world's heavyweight championship between Joe Louis, defending champion, and Tony Galento, the bear-pug man of Orange. This bout will give the champion an opportunity to try his Sunday punch on Tony's rolly-polly punch. It will be worth the price of admission just to see Joe hit that durable and inflated tummy of Tony's. Like Bill Corum, I believe that if Joe tees off and lets go, without reserve, he will bust it.

It is interesting to recall that the last defeat suffered by both fighters occurred on the same night. That was the memorable evening of June 19, 1935, at the Yankee Stadium, when the Brown Bomber was beaten into submission in 12 rounds by Max Schmeling. Immediately after, Galento took on Al Gainer and was handed a technical k.o. in four rounds. Since that time neither fighter has been defeated and both have run up an alarming string of knockouts.

This string of victories will come to an end on night of this year when the two gladiators meet. To this scribe it will be Galento who will be the loser, either by a real k.o. or technical knockout.

The Orange nightstick is a really durable and game battler. He is as tough as nails and a rough-and-tumble fighter who no fighter worries about. He will be lands a punch. He can only hit with one hand, his left, but he packs plenty of power in that mitt.

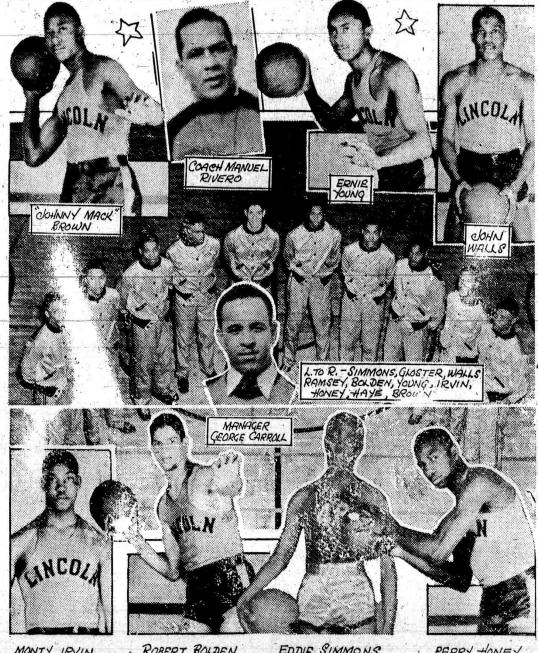

If doubtful if Tony will be able to land that left on Joe. Of course, Schmeling proved the Bomber a sucker for a right, but nobody ever heard him make mark for a left hand, and especially a second round left like Two-Ten's.

The forthcoming light heavyweight championship fight between John Henry Lewis and Dave Clark has some interesting angles. In the first place, Clark is managed by Roxborough and Black, the same two gentlemen who handle Joe Louis. John Henry was given a fight with the Bomber probably on the agreement that he would meet Clark for the title.

It was good business for the Louis managers from another angle, for everyone who saw that Louis-Lewis fight knows that John Henry was softened up by the beating he took and will be much easier for the next man to defeat. It looks as if Joe not only defended his title against John Henry, but he also won the light heavyweight championship for his stablemate.

At Random

At last the Negro National League will have some place to farm players and look for replacements. The formation of the International League must come as good news to the owners of the league. The new league will be composed of Washington, Norfolk, High Point, Belleville, Durham and Greensboro. Each team will carry 16 players and the season will be divided into two halves...Basketball in the C. L. A. is ready on a high scale with the influx of so many Northern schoolboy stars into our schools. That Union team must be a "killer" and Lincoln and Howard looked mighty good on their recent trip into Jersey...That Morgan-Lincoln game should provide plenty of thrill's and fight...Both teams are "hot" right now and will be out to win when they meet at the Orange Armory on March 16...Jimmy Herbert at last explains his showing in individual events this year...Jimmy is working in the Post Office and doesn't have the opportunity to train that he did last year. In addition, he is concentrating on the relay races and refuses to burn himself out in the individual events. Herbert also has his eyes on the 1940 U. S. Olympic team...Probably he remembers the sad case of Eulace Peacock, who defeated everybody indoors in 1936 and failed to make the Olympic team that year...Some folks say that Jess Owens will return to track next winter and run himself into condition for the 1940 Olympics...This is highly possible and it would not be a great surprise to see Jess make the team...Dolly King is on the bench, his friends say, because he has drawn the wrath of his coach. Dolly has been used only as a substitute this season.

Lincoln-Morgan Game Looms As Exciting Clash; Both Teams Boast of New Jersey Stars

ORANGE—Basketball fans of North Jersey are all agog over the announcement of the Lincoln-Morgan game to be played at the Orange Armory on Thursday night, March 16. This game is the second annual meeting of these two noted collegiate aggregations at the Orange drill shed and promises to be one of the outstanding games of the year.

Lincoln is boasting of one of the best teams in the history of the school and the five is playing a sensational brand of basketball, having won the last six consecutive games. That team of Monk Irving of Orange and Hayes as forwards, Ernie Young, former All-State of Trenton, at Center and Boland and Honey at guard is the best in colored college circles.

Morgan has shown flashes of greatness all season and playing at the Orange Armory has always been an inducement for the Hurts to turn in their best performances.

It will be interesting to see a ball-handling contest between Ernie Young and "Spooks" Smith, former Paterson High star, who is the ace of the Morgan team. Orange fans will be on hand to root for Irving and Jimmie Mack.

Brown, local boys and favorites with the home town fans.

Bordentown Beats Coppin

BORDENTOWN—The Manual Training School varsity basketball team last Saturday gained fifth victory in the 1939 MGA championship by defeating Coppin Normal School by a score of 50-51 in a return match played in Baltimore. The game was closely played from start to finish and was featured by frequent scoring by both teams. Coppin led 12-9 at the end of the first quarter.

Henry Armstrong Defends Title In Havana, Kayoes Foe In 4th

HAVANA—Henry Armstrong, welterweight and lightweight title holder, successfully defended his welterweight crown here last week against Bobby Pachano, by scoring a technical k.o. in the fourth round of a scheduled 15 round bout.

The end came in 1 minute and 10 seconds of the fourth round when Pachano was beaten to the floor by a flurry of punches. His corroboration was such that he had to be assisted from the ring.

Indication of what was to happen came in the first round when the challenger was twice knocked down but refused to take a count either time. The milling was fairly even the second and third rounds, with Pachano fighting Armstrong's style of battling.

But in the fourth the champion released the heavy artillery and James J. Braddock, who was the third man in the ring stepped in and called a halt to the match.

Ray Miller, star light heavyweight, has decided to follow in the footsteps of Tony Gaalento, Jack Dempsey and other boxing greats and is now in the saloon business. Ray is passing out beers, mixing appeasing the thirsty who frequent the Club Del Rio at 443 Washington street, Newark.

The club will have its formal opening Thursday night with Ray in hand to greet all of his many friends of the boxing world. Many prominent business, sport and fraternal figures are expected to be present.

Ray informed a reporter of the Herald-News that his new position does not interfere with his fighting. "I'll get plenty of sleep and I am training every day. My favorite pastime is playing with my baby and we have lots of fun together."

Beling Ray revealed that his hardest fight was his first battle with Hennie Katz, which the latter won. He expects to fight before the end of the indoor season and is not particular what opponent is named.

Ole Timers, Company A Will Clash

A game attraction to be staged at the 16th avenue drill shed on Monday, March 20, when the Company A Big Five clashes with the Old-Timers' basketball team in a grudge clash.

The game arose out of the burning question of whether the Old-Timers can really "come back." Asher Conn, former Student Council star and present mentor of the Company A "wonder team," decided to settle the controversy for the present season.

George Talmadge will lead the New Jersey 1927 Champions, all former Student Council players, such as Sammy Bear, Ray Murphy, Jones, Dubby Ward, Ed Mosey, Dank Euston and Bat Braxton.

It is rumored that the Pittsburgh Crawfords are on the block.

Gus Greene, owner of the "Smoky City" aggregation, is reported to be anxious to dispose of his club so as to devote full time to managing John Henry Lewis, light heavyweight champion.

Credence was given the report when Greene submitted his resignation as chairman of the League and it was accepted by the other owners. A meeting of the schedule committee that was due to have been held in Philadelphia, was deferred to a later date. It is said that the uncertainty of the Crawfords was the cause for the postponement.

Last year the Crawfords were far from a financial success and there was talk of disbanding the club in the mid-season. Then Greene disposed of his ball park in Pittsburgh and his announcement of retirement has been expected ever since.

It is known that several persons would be interested in taking over the Crawford's franchise so an announcement of the sale of the club is expected momentarily.
